

MOUNT SINAI ELDERCARE

Mount Sinai Eldercare is a Program of All Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) that provides comprehensive medical and social services to eligible participants. This allows our members to continue living safely in the community instead of a nursing home or other care facility.

ELDERCARE COSTS

What you pay for PACE depends on your eligibility under Medicare and Medicaid:

- If you are eligible for Medicaid, or dually eligible for both Medicare and Medicaid, you will not pay a monthly premium for PACE
- If you do not qualify for Medicaid, but you have Medicare, you will be charged a monthly premium for PACE
- If you do not have Medicare or Medicaid, you can pay for PACE privately

Enrolled participants will receive all health care services, including primary care and specialist physician services, from Mount Sinai Eldercare or from providers authorized by Mount Sinai Eldercare (with the exception of emergency services). There is no deductible or copayment for any drug, service, or care approved by your health care team. You may be fully and personally liable for the cost of unauthorized or out-of-PACE program agreement services.
